

Effective Enforcement and Prosecution of Animal Cruelty

Thursday, September 12th, 2013 0800-1600

Mountain View Precinct
2075 E. Maryland Avenue

This event is not open to the public – it is limited to Phoenix Police and City of Phoenix Prosecutors

The Humane Society of the United States and The Humane LINK are proud to sponsor this FREE training. (Continuing education credits may be provided.) This one-day training will feature experts on animal cruelty/neglect and provide you with valuable tools to investigate and prosecute these heinous crimes.

- Understand pertinent animal cruelty city ordinances
- Review recent changes to animal seizure protocols
- Learn the best practices for investigating and prosecuting these crimes
- Review and practice animal handling techniques (Live animal demonstrations)
- Identify proper resources and deployment of tools for safe handling/capture
- Understand crime scene analysis and evidence collection and preservation
- Review which animals are protected under Arizona law with a discussion of the specific laws and how they apply to different animals and crimes
- Explore the link between animal cruelty and family violence and its importance in preventing future crime
- Review animal fighting related laws and cases

Speakers

Sherry Ramsey, Esq.

Director, Animal Cruelty Prosecutions, The Humane Society of the United States

Ean White, Esq.

Assistant City Attorney– City of Phoenix

Chris West

Operations Manager– Arizona Humane Society

For more info or to RSVP: Arizona@humanesociety.org