2.31 (c) (1)

INSTITUTIONAL ANIMAL CARE AND USE COMMITTEE (IACUC).

2.31(c)(1) - IACUC functions. With respect to activities involving animals, the IACUC, as an agent of the research facility, shall: Review, at least once every six months, the research facility's program for humane care and use of animals, using title 9, chapter I, subchapter A--Animal Welfare, as a basis for evaluation. The last program review completed by the IACUC was in February 2009. This is not available for review today. The next program review was due in August 2009. This is overdue by more than three months. It is essential that these reviews be completed on time in order to help ensure the humane care and use of animals at the facility. This program review needs to be made available to APHIS in order to help the inspector evaluate the program.

submit the reports to the Institutional Official of the research facility; Provided, however, That the IACUC may determine the best means of conducting evaluations of the research facility's programs and facilities; and Provided, further, That no Committee member wishing to participate in any evaluation conducted under this subpart may be excluded. The IACUC may use subcommittees composed of at least two Committee members and may invite ad hoc consultants to assist in conducting the evaluations, however, the IACUC remains responsible for the evaluations and reports as required by the Act and regulations. The reports shall be reviewed and signed by a majority of the IACUC members and must include any minority views. The reports shall be updated at least once every six months upon completion of the required semiannual evaluations and shall be maintained by the research facility and made available to APHIS and to officials of funding Federal agencies for inspection and copying upon request. The reports must contain a description of the nature and extent of the research facility's adherence to this subchapter, must identify specifically any departures from the provisions of title 9, chapter I, subchapter A--Animal Welfare, and must state the reasons for each departure. The reports must distinguish significant deficiencies from minor deficiencies. A significant deficiency is one which, with reference to Subchapter A, and, in the judgment of the IACUC and the Institutional Official, is or may be a threat to the health or safety of the animals. If program or facility deficiencies are noted, the reports must contain a reasonable and specific plan and schedule with dates for correcting each deficiency. Any failure to adhere to the plan and schedule that results in a significant deficiency remaining uncorrected shall be reported in writing within 15 business days by the IACUC, through the Institutional Official, to APHIS and any Federal agency funding that activity. The last report to the Institutional Official was completed in February 2009. It was not available for review today. The next report to the Institutional Official was due in August 2009. This is overdue by more than three months. It is essential that these reports be completed on time in order to help keep the Institutional Official informed as to the care and use of animals at the facility. This report needs to be made available to APHIS in order to help the inspector evaluate the facility.
