This inspection report is to amend the previous inspection that was performed on February 4, 2010 (ID # 35101316580304). On that report 2 non compliances were identified.

It has been determined that the field research activities that were described on the report are not regulated under the Animal Welfare Act, and therefore no registration is required. Since there was no research activity, the Annual Reports that were sent were correct.

This facility is not conducting any regulated research activity.
