

Coyote Hazing Training Workshop

To promote humane deterrents to conflicts with coyotes in urban environments

Training for Animal Control, Police and Code Officers and all First Responders

Presented by Lynsey White Dasher, Urban Wildlife Specialist

The Humane Society of the United States in conjunction with

South Florida

WILDLIFE CENTER

Wednesday, December 5, 2012 10am – 12pm

African American Library

2650 Sistrunk Blvd

Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33311

COURSE OUTLINE:

- Basic Coyote Ecology & Behavior
- Findings from Current Coyote Research
- Types & Causes of Human-Coyote Conflicts
- Educating the Public
- Methods of Coyote Management
- How to Haze Coyotes
- Examples from the Field
- Coyote Conflict Scenarios
- Question/Answer Session

Contact Information:

Cherise Williams

954-524-7154

cwilliams@humanesociety.org

