

Fur Labeling Case Report

If you suspect an animal fur garment is being falsely advertised or labeled for sale in the United States in violation of the law, please fill out this form in as much detail as possible and return to The Humane Society of the United States. Include time-stamped high resolution digital photographs, screen-grabs, and other photographic evidence whenever possible. Please note, we cannot reply to all submissions. Learn more at www.humanesociety.org/furfree. Thank you for caring!

Your information (or leave blank to remain anonymous)

Name _____
Street address _____
City, State, Zip _____
Phone number _____
Cell phone _____
Email _____
Are you an HSUS member? _____
Can we contact you for further information? _____

Advertising information (if applicable)

Television/newspaper/magazine name _____
How is the advertisement false? _____

Retailer and online advertising information (if applicable)

Store address (for brick and mortar) _____
Web address (for online) _____
Exact wording of ad or website describing fur species (if any) _____
Exact wording of ad or website describing fur country of origin (if any) _____
How is the online or in-store description false? _____

Garment information

Brand name _____
Style name/number _____
Exact wording of label/hangtag describing fur species (if any) _____
Exact wording of label/hangtag describing fur country of origin (if any) _____
RN or CA number _____
How is the garment label or hangtag false? _____

Provide additional information here describing the suspected violation in as much detail as possible:

Date ad/label was seen _____
Today's date _____

Return by mail: The Humane Society of the United States

Attn: Fur-Free Campaign
2100 L St. NW
Washington, DC 20037

email: furfree@hsus.org; Subject line: "Fur Labeling Case Report"