

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Dr. Edgar W. Garbisch Scholarship Fund for the Advancement of Humane Education

The Purpose

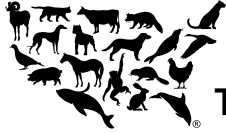

Humane Society Academy (HSA) offers the Dr. Edgar W. Garbisch Scholarship Fund for the Advancement of Humane Education to encourage both potential and existing credential candidates who exhibit a serious interest in advancing the cause of humane education. The scholarship program seeks candidates who have demonstrated commitment to humane education and who intend to use their education and professional credentials to serve as leaders for humane change in their current and future careers. A maximum of 10 scholarships will be awarded in the academic year. Students may receive no more than three Dr. Edgar W. Garbisch Scholarship Fund for the Advancement of Humane Education scholarships while enrolled in the Certified Humane Education Specialist credentialing program.

Eligibility Requirements

Candidates for the Dr. Edgar W. Garbisch Scholarship Fund for the Advancement of Humane Education must meet the following criteria:

- The applicant must be enrolled in or seeking admittance to HSA.
- The applicant must be a student in the Certified Humane Education Specialist credentialing program.
- The applicant must demonstrate an interest in humane education and indicate previous and/or future dedication to prosocial and humane education in formal or informal education programs.
- First time applicants must complete the scholarship form and send all required scholarship packet items in order to be eligible. Subsequent applications need only include the scholarship form.
- The applicant, if a current student, must complete each scholarship course with a grade of 80% or higher to be eligible to apply for additional scholarships.

[Humane Society Academy]

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

How to Apply

First-time applicants: Complete the application form below and submit the following documents to hsa@humanesociety.org:

- Essay questions (described below)
 - Possible information to include: background, aspirations and proposed course of study
- Form or letter confirming experience pertaining to humane education; this may be a letter signed by a supervisor or volunteer coordinator.

Subsequent applicants: Complete the application form below and submit to hsa@humanesociety.org.

Submission Deadline: Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis and must be received at least three weeks before the beginning of any term in the academic year.

The Fine Print

- Scholarship notifications are made toward HSA tuition remission for the current academic year.
- Scholarships are awarded in increments of $50 (up to $200), depending on the class requested and funds available.
- Scholarships may be taxable.

Apply today!

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Application for the Dr. Edgar W. Garbisch Scholarship Fund for the Advancement of Humane Education

Humane Society Academy offers this scholarship program to encourage both potential and existing credential candidates who exhibit a serious interest in advancing the cause of humane education. The scholarship program seeks candidates who have demonstrated commitment to the cause and who intend to use their education and professional credentials in humane studies to serve as leaders for change in their current and future careers.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone number: _____

E-mail: _____

Student ID (ID used to log in if a current student): _____

Name of the course for which you are applying:

Is the course:

- self-paced
 instructor-led

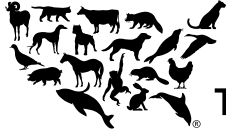

If instructor-led, please list the term in which you are applying to take the course (i.e., Summer 2016. See www.humanesociety.org/hsacourses for our current Term Schedule).

Have you received this scholarship previously? _____ If yes, when? _____

First-time applicants: Complete the application form and submit with the following documents to hsa@humanesociety.org:

- Essay questions (described below)
- Possible information to include: Background, aspirations and proposed course of study
- Form or letter confirming experience pertaining to humane education; this may be a letter signed by a supervisor or volunteer coordinator

Subsequent applications: Complete the application form and submit to hsa@humanesociety.org.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Terms and Conditions

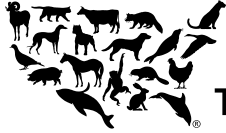

- Scholarships are awarded to students in credentialing programs only
- US citizenship is required
- Scholarships are awarded to students who demonstrate an interest in humane education
- Scholarship notifications are made in advance of term and apply toward tuition remission
- Scholarships are awarded in increments of $50.00 (up to $200.00), depending on the class requested and funds available
- First-time applicants must complete the scholarship form and send all required scholarship packet items in order to be eligible.
- Subsequent applications need only include the scholarship form.
- Current students must complete each scholarship course with a grade of 80% to receive funds
- Scholarships may be taxable

I understand the terms of the terms and conditions of the scholarship.

Signature

Date

E-mail completed application form and application packet materials to hsa@humanesociety.org.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Essay Questions

Your responses to the following questions will be considered in the selection process and reviewed by the scholarship selection committee. Please type your response to each question in a Word file. Respond to all portions of each question; incomplete applications will not be considered.

1. What are your reasons for applying for the scholarship? If you're currently a Humane Society Academy (HSA) student, what has been a positive result of attending HSA? If you're not currently an HSA student, why are you choosing to attend HSA?

2. In what ways do you believe that humane education can impact youth and the community? Why did you choose the Certified Humane Education Specialist program of study, and how will your education help you reach your career or life goals? Please include information about past, current and future interests in humane education and your anticipated use of what you will learn.