

Why fit in, when you were born to STAND OUT?

Volunteer for The HSUS: Become a District Leader

RAGNAR TH SIGURDSSON/ALAMY

District leaders are at the forefront of HSUS efforts to celebrate animals and confront cruelty.

Serve as an HSUS ambassador in your congressional district and advance the HSUS federal and state animal protection legislative agenda.

THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Opportunities & Benefits

- Become a highly trained and effective volunteer leader;
- Develop legislative advocacy, networking, and leadership skills;
- Join a community with others dedicated to protecting all animals.

Responsibilities

- Actively participate in ongoing federal, state and local legislative advocacy and policy work;
- Build a base of allies in your congressional district who will take action on behalf of animal protection issues;
- Develop and implement a local action plan in your community;
- Participate in Humane Lobby Days.

Qualifications

- Commitment to the HSUS mission;
- Willingness to cultivate effective relationships with lawmakers and relay animal protection positions to them;
- Strong interpersonal skills;
- Strong computer literacy and a general knowledge of social media;
- Availability to volunteer 1-3 hours per week for a minimum of one year.

Interested in applying for the district leader program?

Visit humanesociety.org/districtleaders for more information or contact districtleader@humanesociety.org or 301.721.6405.