

District Leader Volunteer

Nothing in this position description restricts management's right to assign or reassign duties and responsibilities to this position at any time.

Work Location	Opportunities exist in congressional districts across the country
Position Grade	1; background check not required
Purpose of the Position	As part of The Humane Society of the United States' (HSUS) volunteer leadership, district leaders' efforts help to build an even stronger platform of protection for all animals and advance The HSUS' federal and state animal protection legislative agenda. District leaders are at the forefront of HSUS efforts to celebrate animals and confront cruelty.
Volunteer Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Actively participate in ongoing federal and state legislative advocacy and policy work; engage in corporate reform campaigns as time and energy allow; • Establish and maintain strong and effective professional relationships with appointed and elected legislators; politely, clearly and consistently relay the organization's animal protection positions to them, encourage their support/co-sponsorship, and thank them for their efforts; • Recruit a network of HSUS allies who will take action on behalf of animal protection issues; • Serve as an HSUS ambassador in your congressional district, communicating our mission, approach and positions while fostering a greater animal protection presence in your state and local community; • Track and report your hours of service and activities on behalf of The HSUS in the volunteer database (Volunteer Hub) and update your HSUS state director and/or the director of grassroots as requested; • Participate in Humane Lobby Day at your state capitol and when possible, participate in federal Humane Lobby Day in D.C.; • Help organize grassroots outreach, such as an in-district humane lobby day, represent The HSUS at community events, and participate in HSUS awareness-building events and other campaign-related initiatives; • Submit letters to the editor to your local newspaper; • Actively engage in a supportive community of HSUS volunteer leaders on social media and post/maintain relevant content on personal social media accounts, including Facebook and Twitter; • In some congressional districts, district leaders may be responsible for working with their HSUS state director to help guide an HSUS deputy district leader volunteer(s) in his/her service to the organization; and • Optional: Under the guidance and advice of your HSUS state director, develop and implement a local animal protection project in your congressional district in an area of your choice. Sample projects include promoting the adoption of a Meatless Monday resolution by your city council and/or school district, or assisting a local pet store in adopting the Puppy Friendly Pet Store model. Please note: we strongly encourage district leaders to consult with their state director about a project that is most relevant to the needs of their congressional district.

Level of Difficulty 1=easy/5=demanding (physical, mental, emotional)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Physical difficulty is level 2; district leaders will likely have minimal physical activity related to their work, aside from gathering for meetings or setting up for and attending outreach events.
