Petland in Nevada: Where Do They Get Their Puppies?

Petland claims that they only buy from breeders with “the highest standards,” but the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) has found that they continue to buy from known puppy mills and out-of-state brokers that deal with puppy mills. The Las Vegas, NV, Petland bought puppies from at least one major broker which the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) has cited for multiple violations.

A broker is a “middleman” animal dealer that buys puppies from many different kennels and puppy mills for resale to pet stores.

Hunte: Cited for Small Cages and Underage Puppies

The HSUS’s 2008 Petland Investigation tied this store to a massive Missouri puppy broker, The Hunte Corporation. Hunte is a middleman animal dealer which the USDA has cited for keeping dozens of animals in too-small cages, repeatedly transporting underage puppies, and other violations. The Hunte Corporation sells about 80,000 puppies a year from hundreds of different kennels and puppy mills.

Lambriar: Cited for Sick Puppies

The HSUS’s 2008 Petland Investigation showed that this store received multiple shipments from a massive Kansas puppy broker, Lambriar, Inc. in 2008. Lambriar is a middleman animal dealer which the USDA cited in 2008 for keeping two sick puppies at the facility who had not yet been seen or treated by a veterinarian. Lambriar sells thousands of puppies a year from dozens of different kennels and puppy mills in Missouri, Oklahoma, Iowa, South Dakota, Kansas and other states.

This store may also buy from other dealers.
