

Name: _____

L.5.1 Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage.

Edit Please!

The facts about chimps below are correct—but the sentences need a little help!

Circle each of the errors in punctuation, spelling, grammar, and capitalization. Write the correct word or words below the word.

- 1 Chimpanzees are hour closest living relatives.
- 2 They can live too be more than 50 years old?
- 3 Chimpanzees are grate apes, as are gorillas, orangutans, bonobos—and even humans.
Munkeys are not apes.
- 4 The easiest weigh to tell the difference between a chimpanzee and a monkey is to look for a tale. Most monkeys have tails; chimps do not.
- 5 Buy the time they are 3 years old, chimpanzees way about 30-40 pounds, but are as strong as an adult human.
- 6 Chimpanzees communicate with each other. They use facial expressions, calls, grooming—even laughing and screaming—two let others no what they are feeling.
They also comfort one another bye kissing and huging.
- 7 Chimpanzees use tools. They stripe leaves from branches and use the twigs to “fish” four insects or to get honey from a beehive. They use rocks to crack open nuts and large leaves to collect water. Yong chimpanzees learn how to use tools frum adult chimps.