VERB REVIEW

Verbs are action words. Verbs in the present tense describe action that is happening now. (I walk.) Verbs in the past tense describe action that happened in the past. (I walked.) Verbs in the future tense describe action that will happen in the future. (I will walk.)

Mrs. Schulz asked her students how they protect animals and the environment. Some described things they've done or that they do often. Others told what they plan to do. Here is their list.

For each sentence, write the tense of the underlined verb: present, past or future.

_____ ① Karen will collect items to donate to the animal shelter.

_____ ② Stacey brought her own cloth bags on her shopping trip.

_____ ③ Andy reminds people to walk dogs on a leash.

_____ ④ Jose wore a sweater instead of turning up the heat.

_____ ⑤ Last month, Peter helped his parents clean up trash at the beach.

_____ ⑥ Joe's family will keep their new cat indoors.
