The Washington Humane Society and The Humane Society of the United States invite you to the third annual Humane Society Walk for the Animals. Bring your canine friend—or walk in memory of a special animal or for a pet who prefers to stay home—and enjoy a pleasant stroll around the beautiful lake at Constitution Gardens (at the corner of Constitution Avenue and 17th Street, N.W.), next to the World War II Memorial on the National Mall. All proceeds benefit efforts to end pet homelessness. Help us make a difference!

Fun for the whole family!

- “Best Dressed Canine” contest
- “Find the Bone” hunt for prizes
- Canine agility course
- Music, pet treats, face painting, and more!

For public transportation, take Metro to the Smithsonian station on the Blue and Orange Lines. Small dogs (20 pounds or less) are permitted on the Metro provided they are secured in carriers and pose no danger or offense to other passengers.
